Celebrating 37 Years of Service to Community Associations

Barb's Briefing

Breaking Down HOA Officers Job Descriptions

When accepting one of the HOA Board positions, you should know that you're taking on a lot of responsibilities. But, don't let that scare you. Your role as a Board member can also be extremely fulfilling.

The Board is responsible for managing the entire association.

The specific duties of HOA Board members will depend on the officer's title, though. Here are the HOA officers job descriptions:

HOA Board President

Typically, the President runs all Board meetings. They also carry out contracts, orders, and documents on behalf of the association. The President also handles the daily administration of the association. In addition, they make sure all HOA Board duties are fulfilled with the community's best interests in mind.

HOA Board Vice President

The HOA Vice President, assumes the President's responsibilities when, for any reason, they cannot.

HOA Board Secretary

The Secretary's main duties are taking down meeting minutes and sending out notices of the meeting.

HOA Board Treasurer

The Treasurer manages the association's finances & budgets.

As you can see, the HOA Board takes on many duties and responsibilities.

Their job is not only time-consuming, but it also requires a lot of patience, communication, and effort.

Considering how much the Board contributes to the community, the positions are certainly rewarding.

Katrina's organization skills, detailed summary of updates on various work status and upbeat disposition should be commended.

A Stonehedge homeowner complimented Chris for the great work he did on replacing our window box. It looks great. He's been out here a bunch of times and always does a great job.

SMORES PIZZA

By: Guy Fieri

Ingredients -

- 2 1-pound store-bought pizza-dough balls
- 1/4 cup slivered almonds
- 3 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 1 sleeve graham crackers, crushed (1 1/4 cups crumbs)
- 1/2 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon fine sea salt
- 3 cups mini marshmallows
- 2 4-oz dark chocolate bars, broken into 1/4-inch chunks

Directions - Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F.

Form the pizza dough into two 12-to-14-inch rounds, 1/4 inch thick. Bake, preferably on a pizza stone or pizza pan, for 4 to 6 minutes, or until just beginning to brown. Leave the oven at 400 degrees F.

While the pizza crust is baking, toast the almonds in a medium dry skillet over medium-high heat. Transfer the almonds to a plate to cool.

Melt the butter in the skillet. Add the graham cracker crumbs, chili powder, cayenne and salt. Cook for 2 to 3 minutes, until the crumbs are well coated. Remove from the heat and set aside.

For each pizza, top the crust with half of the marshmallows and scatter half of the chocolate over the marshmallows. Return to the oven for 3 to 5 minutes, until the marshmallows are puffed and lightly browned. Sprinkle the pizza with half of the graham cracker mixture and top with half of the almonds. Let rest 3 to 4 minutes, slice and serve. Repeat to make the second pizza.

More Testimonials

I would also like to compliment your organization on the timely and frequent communications experienced since your taking over management of Bay Village. I've been a resident there for over 20 years and this is outstanding! Thanks again!

Gail Andrews - Bay Village

Just a quick note to say how happy we are with the quick turnaround on our deck/door sill problem. Bill just left here after doing a good, professional job at remediation. He fully explained what the problem was and how he proposed to repair it. The finished repair looks solid and permanent. Many thanks to both Keith and Bill for removing this worry from our minds. It was greatly appreciated.

Rick Squires - Pumpkin Hill

Please keep sending all your messages! Your communication is AMAZING and greatly appreciated!

Nancee Sanders - Bay Village

I am President of the Enclave at Sable Oaks HOA and have been for 5 years. Our HOA was self managed for almost 8 years, and about 3 years ago we decided to hire Crofton Perdue for our Property Management Company. This was a great move, but the best part of our partnership was being assigned to Nik Albert as our personal property manager. I cannot say enough about Nik. He has been nothing but prompt, professional and deeply interested in the success of our HOA. Poor Nik has had to put up with me as being a very "hands-on" president, always asking questions, seeking advice and requesting proposals from various contractors. Nik is always "on it"! He has personally come to our community over and over again for a walk-around to get a better idea of our situation. I think we hit the jackpot with Crofton Perdue AND Nik Albert!!
