DISH-TO-PASS

COOKBOOK

SUMMER 1993

AHOY

This is our first edition of "DISH TO PASS" cookbook. The name started several years ago when we had an abundance of hots left over from Bristol Daze. So we planned a "Dish-to-Pass" party on the docks. We ate lot, drank a lot and were still left with those hot dogs. Now the event is "Picnic on the Beach". Here are a few of those delicious recipes, beginning with a toast to you and your family and the summer of '93.

Happy and safe boating!

FRESH TOMATO SAUCE WITH CRISP GARLIC

By Ellie Caccamise

3-6 cloves chopped garlic
Sauté in olive oil until lightly browned
Remove garlic to dish and set aside to sprinkle on top of pasta

Chop 2-4 tomatoes (gently squeeze out seeds and Juice and discard)

Add any combination of fresh herbs (basil, parsley, oregano), black or Greek chopped olives, anchovies, tuna, hot pepper flakes, black pepper or capers.

Put tomatoes+ in the sauté pan with the trace of olive oil left and mix together - it is not necessary to cook - just leave at room temp or warm slightly on the turned off burner. Do not boil or tomatoes will mush.

Perhaps a log house stood in your cul – de – sac.
Maybe a corn field was burned to ashes in your front yard.

In the 17th Century, the Iroquois Confederation flourished where you live & play, go to school & come to Church.

Harvey Limbeck, St. Catherine Parishioner, 20 year Ganondagan volunteer and trail guide will recount for us the fascinating history of the earliest residents of Mendon and Victor, Lima and Honeoye Falls ... the Iroquois Confederacy.

Plan to be part of this interesting discussion of those first residents who live on this land before us and of their influence on our American Culture.
